Movie at Balwyn Cinema: CABRINI

This outstanding biopic is about Mother Cabrini, an Italian nun who moves to New York to build orphanages in the slums as her mission to help the poor. A beautiful movie.

“To serve the poor is to go to God” – St Vincent De Paul

To parishioners of St Bede’s Balwyn North, St Anne’s Kew East and St Joachim’s Kew North.

The local Saint Vincent de Paul Conference is holding our Annual Winter Appeal to assist those in need.

We are in a period with inflation at an all-time high, and Covid still in our communities many people are struggling and looking to us for assistance. For an increasing number, it is the first time they have sought help. Employment is an issue with many of our clients, with their major concern, that if they do not regain employment within 2 years, they may never work again. We predict that demand for our services will be significantly increased.

Our Conference was formed in 1957 and has now celebrated over 65 years of service to our community. Then and now, our primary work is to help people struggling to cope with the day-to-day pressures of life. They are in a situation where they need help, through no fault of their own. Some of the types of assistance that we commonly provide are food vouchers, which can be used at local supermarkets, clothing, furniture or financial assistance towards utility bills, education costs. We also assist with the Soup Van supplying food to those who are less fortunate than ourselves. A key part of our work, which is often little recognised, is to lend a listening ear.

We are asking that you do your best to help us. Every dollar donated goes to those in need and there are no administrative charges deducted. All donations over $2.00 are tax deductible. Refer reverse page for payment and receipting process.

Our collection process allows for payment by cash, credit card and on-line.

We at Vinnies thank you in advance for your donation.

It would be very helpful if you could provide your email address when completing the form on the reverse page. Using email reduces our workload in preparing and sending a receipt to you.
